Welcome from the NFLP Planning Committee

Welcome, everyone, to the 2024 National Family Law Program, sponsored by the Federation of Law Societies of Canada, in beautiful Halifax, Nova Scotia -- “Canada’s Ocean Playground.” For those of you that have attended the NFLP before, we thank you very much for your continued support of the Program. And for those of you for whom this is a first; we hope it is the first of many.

We have assembled an informative, educational and entertaining program for you. We hope you partake of all the Program has to offer including learning, seeing old friends/colleagues and, hopefully, meeting new ones.

The NFLP began in 1982. Since then, it has come to be seen as the premier family law education conference in Canada, with speakers (judges, lawyers, academics and thought-leaders) from across the country on a variety of procedural, substantive, evidentiary topics along with thought-provoking papers. The Program’s faculty works incredibly hard, and we take this opportunity to thank them for their efforts.

This year, we will officially rename the Wednesday evening dinner as “The Jim Williams Dinner” in honour of Justice Jim Williams, the one with the drive to create this Program all those years ago – and who although has officially “retired” from the Program -- is presenting this year. The Barra MacNeils will provide the evening’s entertainment – something not to be missed. We hope you are able to attend what promises to be a delicious and entertaining evening.

We would also like to thank the NFLP Admin Team: Julie Begbie and Brittnay Del Guidice along with the many that have volunteered their time to help the program run seamlessly. Julie and Brittnay have assumed the role formerly assumed by Heather Walker – and we thank Heather for her (literally) decades of service to the Program.

We hope you enjoy the program and all Halifax has to offer!
